Jonesfield Township Planning Commission
2019 Report to the Jonesfield Township Board

Over the 2019 year, the Jonesfield Township Planning Commission has worked diligently on several topics

- Wind energy ordinance. After many months of work and a special election, the revised ordinance was rejected. The township is back to the original 2004 wind ordinance
- Solar ordinance. A new solar ordinance is in place.
- Five year reviews of Zoning Ordinances and the Master Plan.
- Pursued several ordinance violations.
- 2020 Planning Commission meeting dates set and discussion of Planning Commission member term updates. (1/14, 4/14, 7/14, 10/13)

Copies of all meeting minutes are available at the township website, www.jonesfield.com

If the board has any questions, please let me know.
